DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

MENS MENTAL HEALTH

MONTH AWARENESS SESSION

The Department of Psychology, in association with the Literary Association (LA), organized a Men's Mental Health Awareness session on 29th June 2026 to commemorate Men's Mental Health Month and promote awareness about men's psychological well-being. The program aimed to enhance students' understanding of men's mental health, reduce stigma, encourage help-seeking behaviour, and foster empathy through interactive learning. The event featured student-led performances including speeches, poetry narration, and a skit, highlighting issues such as emotional expression, societal expectations, and mental health stigma. To make the session more efficient a short documentary was screened too. Interactive activities such as myth-busting activity, an emoticon jigsaw puzzle, and a message-writing corner further engaged students and encouraged meaningful discussions. Attended by 101 students, the session successfully increased awareness, promoted positive attitudes towards men's mental health, and emphasized the importance of emotional support and professional help. Participant feedback was highly positive, with students appreciating the informative and engaging nature of the session and expressing interest in attending similar initiatives in the future.

CAREER AWARENESS PROGRAM ON COMPANY SECRETARY

The Department of Accountancy, in association with Accounting and Finance at Sheth NKTT College of Commerce and Sheth JTT College of Arts (Autonomous), Thane, organized a Career Awareness Program titled "Company Secretary: A Career with Endless Opportunities" on 2nd July 2026. Conducted in two sessions to accommodate students from various streams like BA, B.Com, BAF, BMS, BBI, and B.Sc, the event featured resource person CS Neerali Lakhani from the Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI). The speaker shared valuable insights regarding the role and responsibilities of a Company Secretary, eligibility criteria, course structure, examinations, training requirements, and wide-ranging career opportunities in corporate governance, financial institutions, and legal compliance. The interactive sessions received an enthusiastic response, encouraging students to actively ask questions and consider the profession as a rewarding career option.

The Purest Kind

Her beauty is like a rising sun,
Yet it's the heart that shines brightest.
Her eyes r like the ocean,
Dive deep as u dare, but it's never the highest.

A voice so divine, like a summery breeze,
Soft as a whisper of ancient trees.
Here it once and u will freeze,
Here it twice and u will cease.

A soul so pure like a newborn child,
Face with an unfading smile, so mild.
In every sight, a gentle grace,
A soul that even time can't erase.

The sun may set, the skies may turn grey.
But, the true beauty lies in the actions and words we do and say.

You say beautiful faces and beautiful smiles,
But, the heart that shines brightest is the purest kind

From Heart to Art

The Department of Psychology organised an Art Therapy workshop titled “From Heart to Art” on 23rd July 2026 at 11:00 a.m. in the Multipurpose Hall. The workshop was conducted by Ms. Kshitija Ghan, a practicing psychologist and expressive Art Therapy practitioner, along with her intern, Ms. Prachi Deshpande. Centred on the theme “Emotional Attunement,” the session introduced students to Art Therapy as a creative and non-verbal therapeutic approach for emotional exploration, stress reduction, and self-awareness. Through experiential activities, participants developed awareness of their own emotions, understood others’ emotional states, and explored healthy emotional expression. The workshop highlighted the relevance of Art Therapy as an alternative intervention in psychology, particularly for undergraduate psychology students. A total of 30 students from SYBA and TYBA attended the session. The workshop enhanced students’ understanding of Art Therapy and its applications, encouraged creative and embodied self-exploration, and increased interest in alternative therapeutic approaches. Feedback indicated that students found the session engaging and meaningful, appreciated its focus on emotional understanding, and expressed a desire for more such workshops in the future.

Student Council DEEKSHARAMBH

The Student Council of the college successfully organized the three-day “Deeksharambh” Induction Programme 2026–27 from 16th to 18th July 2026 at NKTT Sabhagruh. Designed to warmly welcome the new batch of students, the programme marked the beginning of an exciting journey into higher education. It provided students with an opportunity to understand the academic environment, institutional culture, facilities, career opportunities, and the wide range of co-curricular and extracurricular activities offered by the college.

The programme aimed to make the transition from school to college smooth and meaningful while encouraging students to embrace discipline, regular attendance, active participation, skill development, and holistic personality growth.

The first day was dedicated to the FYBCOM students of the Commerce Department. Vice Principal Dr. Himanshi Mansukhani introduced the students to the academic and co-curricular environment of the institution. Principal Dr. Dilip Patil addressed the students and highlighted the importance of discipline, regular attendance, participation in college activities, and overall personality development. Dr. Manoshi Bagchi, IQAC Coordinator, familiarized students with the Mentor-Mentee and counselling systems, while Ms. Supriya Kamble, Counsellor, was introduced to the students. Dr. Sujata Gada, SFC Coordinator, and Dr. Yogeshwari Patil further guided the students about college committees, certificate and diploma courses, industrial visits, the CGPC, and placement opportunities.

The second day focused on students of the Science & Technology Department, comprising FYBSc programmes in Information Technology, Data Science, Artificial Intelligence & Machine Learning, Computer Applications, Cyber Security & Cloud Computing, Fashion Design, and Interior Design. The sessions introduced students to their respective academic structures and career pathways while emphasizing the significance of technology, innovation, continuous learning, and skill development. Students were encouraged to actively participate in academic, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities. Dr. Yogeshwari Patil also briefed the students about IT Tech and other major activities planned by the institution to support their personal and professional development.

The third and final day brought together students from Commerce & Management and Humanities. The first session was conducted for FYBCOM students pursuing Accounting & Finance, Banking & Insurance, Management Studies, BBI + CFP, and BAF + CMA. Students were introduced to their academic structure, career opportunities, and the importance of developing professional competencies. The concluding session was organized for FYBA students, with a focus on higher education, holistic development, discipline, and active involvement in academic and co-curricular activities.

The Deeksharambh Induction Programme 2026–27 concluded on a warm and inspiring note. Beyond being an orientation programme, it served as a meaningful first step in helping students understand their new academic environment and the opportunities awaiting them. With renewed confidence, enthusiasm, and a positive outlook, the students embarked on their college journey, ready to learn, explore, participate, and grow.

Students Council
